- Select “BOE Workshop” for a 27-page booklet
- Select “Commonly Used Forms”, then “BOE Appeal Form” for the one-page appeal form you will need
- BOE appeal deadline is 5 p.m. Monday, July 8, 2019 in the office of the Phelps County Clerk

Owners of personal and real property may appeal the assessment (on which property taxes are based) of their property if they believe that the valuation assigned to their property is incorrect. This appeal most often occurs at the county level, is made to the Board of Equalization, and may be done either in writing or in person. The Board of Equalization appeal form is attached to this page and also may be obtained from the office of:
